Methodist Church Activities

Laymens' Day will be observed at the Morning Worship Service at 11 O'clock, with Dr. S. R. Lawson, President of the Mens' Club, presiding. Mr. Luther Nash and Mr. Richard Williams will be the speakers for the occasion. The Chapel Choir will present special music. In the afternoon, under the direction of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism, teams will contact homes of the Community in the interest of unchurched and unreached. This survey is a prelude to the Evangelistic Revival being held in the Memorial Methodist Church the week of October 16th. A different minister from nearby Methodist Churches will preach each evening and the choirs of the church will furnish special music.

For the Evening Worship Service, beginning promptly at 6:30 O'clock, a Movie on Christian Stewardship will be shown. The title is "The Talents" and is most worthily of the time and devotion of all members and friends of the Church.

The minister and family of Memorial will spend the week-end in Strasburg, Virginia, a formey pastorate, where Mr. Berrgdoll will deliver the Annual Homecoming Sermon at the Morning Worship Hour.
